Plaintiff,

v.

JEREMY BROWNLEE, individually, and d/b/a CROSSFIT LEE'S SUMMIT a/k/a
CF LEE'S SUMMIT and COMMUNITY
FITNESS LEE'S SUMMIT,

Defendants.

CIVIL ACTION NO. 4:25-cv-00093

VERIFIED COMPLAINT AND DEMAND FOR TRIAL BY JURY

Plaintiff CrossFit, LLC ("CrossFit"), for its Complaint against Defendants Jeremy Brownlee, individually ("Mr. Brownlee") and d/b/a "CrossFit Lee's Summit" a/k/a "CF Lee's Summit" and "Community Fitness Lee's Summit" (together with Mr. Brownlee, "Defendants"), respectfully alleges as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. This is an action for willful violations of CrossFit's intellectual property rights, including trademark infringement, false designation of origin, trademark dilution, and unfair competition, arising out of Defendants' intentional and unauthorized use of the federally registered CrossFit® trademark. Despite numerous written communications from CrossFit demanding that Defendants cease their infringement of the CrossFit® mark, Defendants continue to use the CrossFit® mark without authorization. Defendants' conduct has caused irreparable harm to CrossFit and will continue to cause irreparable harm unless Defendants' unlawful use of the CrossFit® mark is immediately and permanently enjoined.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff CrossFit, LLC is a Delaware limited liability company with a principal place of business in Prescott, Arizona.

3. Upon information and belief, Defendant Jeremy Brownlee is the owner of and is doing business as “CrossFit Lee’s Summit” (also known as “CF Lee’s Summit” and “Community Fitness Lee’s Summit”) with a principal place of business located at 1347 NW Main Street, Lee’s Summit, MO 64086.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. This Court has subject-matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §1121 (jurisdiction over Lanham Act claims), 28 U.S.C. §1331 (federal question), and 28 U.S.C. §1338 (claims related to trademarks and unfair competition). This Court also has jurisdiction over the state and common law claims alleged herein pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1367(a) (supplemental jurisdiction). CrossFit’s state and common law claims are so related to the federal claims that they form part of the same case or controversy.

5. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, they reside and conduct business in the State of Missouri.

6. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1391(b) because, upon information and belief, Defendants’ principal place of business is in this judicial district. In addition, a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to CrossFit’s claims occurred and continue to occur in this judicial district.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

A. CrossFit

5. Developed in the early 1980s, CrossFit is a famous fitness training and lifestyle brand that is applied to goods and services intended to help individuals improve their physical well-being and fitness in an encouraging environment. The training style that CrossFit incorporates into CrossFit®-branded fitness training, “constantly varied functional movements preformed at relatively high intensity,” is commonly known as “high-intensity interval training” (“HIIT”) and “functional fitness.” These functional movements translate into everyday activities for all ages and abilities, such as picking keys off the floor, standing up, or placing household items on a shelf. In addition to its community-focused fitness training services, CrossFit sells products and offers numerous additional services under the CrossFit® brand. It also owns and operates the “CrossFit Games®,” the world’s largest participatory fitness competition. Over 340,000 athletes participated in the first stage of the 2024 CrossFit Games competition.

6. Over the last three decades, CrossFit has worked diligently and invested substantial resources in promoting CrossFit®-branded goods and services, including, especially, the credentialing of trainers. CrossFit’s hard work has paid off. CrossFit estimates that millions of people around the world engage in CrossFit®-branded training, in most cases in a CrossFit®-branded facility. These CrossFit athletes train at over 12,000 CrossFit-licensed gyms located in more than 150 countries. The CrossFit Games®, which are broadcast on ESPN and live-streamed on other social media channels, draw tens of millions of viewers. CrossFit’s websites average nearly 80 million hits each year.

B. CrossFit's Intellectual Property

7. CrossFit's careful cultivation, maintenance, and protection of its intellectual property rights has enabled CrossFit to amass considerable goodwill. Consumers readily and singularly associate the CrossFit name with CrossFit's fitness training services offered by credentialed trainers through licensed facilities. The "CrossFit" name is widely recognized throughout the United States and around the world as an indicator of well-trained instructors, properly insured facilities, and access to a community of athletes competing both on a daily basis and annually through the CrossFit Games®.

8. CrossFit diligently protects its intellectual property through, inter alia, trademark registration. CrossFit owns numerous trademark and service mark registrations for the word mark "CrossFit," including registrations for fitness training, charitable fundraising, scientific research relating to exercise and human performance, entertainment services (e.g., videos and podcasts), apparel, and footwear. CrossFit's exclusive ownership of the CrossFit® mark for gyms and fitness classes is memorialized in U.S. Registration No. 3,007,458. A true and correct copy of U.S. Registration No. 3,007,458 (Oct. 18, 2005) is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

9. Because CrossFit has continuously used the CrossFit® mark for gyms and fitness classes in commerce for more than five consecutive years after the date of its registration, the CrossFit® mark is "incontestable" as defined in 15 U.S.C. §1065.

C. Use of the CrossFit® Mark by CrossFit-Licensed Gyms

10. CrossFit offers a nationally standardized certificate program to personal trainers who desire to teach CrossFit® classes or own and operate a CrossFit-licensed gym (commonly referred to as "boxes" or "affiliates"). Individuals who successfully complete CrossFit's certificate program and meet other requirements for affiliation are eligible to enter into annually renewable affiliate license agreements, which permit limited use of the CrossFit® mark subject to various conditions, including payment of an annual fee. Only individuals who have completed CrossFit's certificate process and have entered into valid affiliate license agreements are permitted to use the CrossFit® mark in connection with fitness training.

D. Defendants

11. Upon information and belief, Mr. Brownlee is the owner of a fitness facility located in Lee's Summit, Missouri doing business as "CrossFit Lee's Summit" (also known as "CF Lee's Summit" and "Community Fitness Lee's Summit").

12. Upon information and belief, the fitness services offered by Defendants are similar to the fitness services offered under the CrossFit® mark by licensed CrossFit affiliates, including licensed CrossFit affiliates in and around Lee's Summit, Missouri.

13. Upon information and belief, Defendants target the same consumers as those targeted by CrossFit's licensed affiliates.

E. Mr. Brownlee's Affiliate Agreement with CrossFit Terminates

14. On or around May 13, 2017, Mr. Brownlee entered into an affiliate agreement with CrossFit. Under the agreement, CrossFit licensed to Mr. Brownlee the right to use the CrossFit® mark in the name of Mr. Brownlee's fitness facility, "CrossFit Lee's Summit" during the term of the agreement. CrossFit also granted a limited license to Mr. Brownlee to use other CrossFit-related marks, such as Forging Elite Fitness®, in connection with advertising, marketing, selling, and rendering CrossFit-approved services at Mr. Brownlee's fitness facility. In exchange for these valuable rights, Mr. Brownlee agreed to pay an annual fee to CrossFit and to comply with the terms and conditions set forth in the agreement.

15. Upon the expiration or termination of the affiliate agreement, the affiliate must immediately discontinue using the CrossFit® mark and “promptly remove all references to the [the CrossFit® mark] from (x) its social media accounts, including, but not limited to, all account descriptions, posts, videos, images and hashtags . . . .” Mr. Brownlee’s affiliate agreement terminated on September 27, 2024.

F. Defendants’ Willful Infringement

16. Because Mr. Brownlee’s affiliate agreement terminated, Defendants are no longer authorized to use the CrossFit® mark and are required to remove the CrossFit® mark from its social media accounts, among other things. CrossFit does not endorse or approve of the services offered by Defendants.

17. Nevertheless, Defendants intentionally, and without permission, continued to use the CrossFit® mark to offer and promote their fitness services. Moreover, at all relevant times, Defendants have been fully aware of CrossFit’s prior use, ownership, and registration of the CrossFit® mark.

18. On October 15, 2024, after Mr. Brownlee was no longer a licensed CrossFit affiliate, CrossFit contacted Mr. Brownlee in connection with his failure to cease his ongoing, unauthorized use of the CrossFit® mark. CrossFit identified specific uses of the CrossFit® mark by Mr. Brownlee and his entities that must stop (providing, among other things, URL addresses for four unlawful uses of the mark). Defendants did not respond.

19. On October 23, 2024, CrossFit contacted Mr. Brownlee advising him that his failure to comply with the October 15th cease and desist letter would result in CrossFit taking legal action against Defendants. Defendants did not respond or comply with CrossFit’s demands.

20. On November 26, 2024, outside counsel for CrossFit sent Mr. Brownlee a letter demanding that Defendants immediately cease and desist their ongoing, unauthorized use of the CrossFit® mark. The letter advised the Defendants that they must complete their de-identification of the CrossFit® mark within fourteen (14) days or CrossFit would initiate legal action. Defendants again failed to respond or comply with CrossFit’s demands.

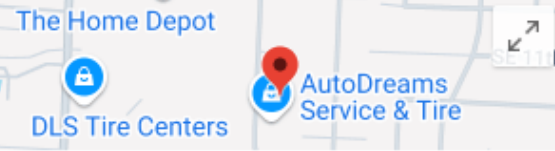

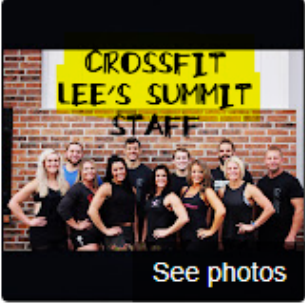

21. Despite several demands, Defendants are nevertheless continuing to display the CrossFit® mark. Among other things:

- Defendants’ website (freedomelitefitness.com) displays the CrossFit® mark and promotes “CF” (CrossFit) trainers:

- The CrossFit Lee's Summit is listed on Google:

- Defendants are continuing to use the CrossFit® mark on social media platforms including Facebook and Instagram:

22. Defendants' unauthorized use of the CrossFit® mark for fitness services deceptively misleads consumers into believing that CrossFit Lee's Summit is an official licensee and affiliate of CrossFit. In addition, Defendants' use of the CrossFit® mark creates the false impression that CrossFit endorses or otherwise approves of the services provided by Mr. Brownlee and CrossFit Lee's Summit. Defendants are engaging in their ongoing, unlawful conduct to profit by trading off CrossFit's substantial reputation and goodwill.

23. Defendants' unlawful use of the CrossFit® mark for fitness services has and is likely to continue to cause confusion as to the source, sponsorship, or affiliation of those services. If not enjoined, Defendants' unlawful conduct will continue to harm the goodwill and reputation that CrossFit has carefully cultivated at great labor and expense.
